The Book of Ephesians – Chapter 5

Paul continues his description of the Christian’s walk.

I. WALK IN LOVE (5:1–6)

As God’s children, we should imitate our Father. God is love, and we should walk in love. The example of Christ’s love should inspire us.

John 15:9; John 15:12; 1 John 3:16–18; Rom. 12:9

False teachers may say that you can be a Christian and live in habitual, deliberate sin; but Paul calls these teachings “empty [vain] words.”

Gal. 5:21; 1 Cor. 6:9–10.

We were “children of disobedience” (2:1–3); now we are children of God, and we ought to walk in love.

II. WALK IN THE LIGHT (5:7–14)

The word translated “partakers” (v. 7) implies having in common; it is often translated “fellowship” or “partnership.” Christians are partakers of:

(1) _____ Peter 1:4

⁴Thus he has given us, through these things, his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of lust, and may become participants of the divine nature.

(2) _____ Eph. 3:6

(3) _____ 1 Peter 4:13
