Session one: Believing God for your Promise Land

1. Many of the Old Testament concepts with literal implications hold spiritual implications for New Testament believers in Christ. The concept of a _____ is a primary example.
2. In fact, God not only _____ us to apply the concepts spiritually but also _____ (Heb. 3).
3. The most concentrated New Testament spiritual equivalent of the promised-land concept is perhaps best captured in _____.
  - a. Our promised land is a place of _____. In John 15 we are called to possess: _____, much _____ prayer, and the _____ of Jesus. Our promised lands are places of God's _____ to the _____.
  - b. Our promised land is a place of _____. Where? In Christ's _____.
  - c. Our promised lands are places where God brings forth a _____.
4. Our promised lands will always involve _____.
5. Our promised lands are places of _____ over our _____ (Josh. 3:10).
6. The original word for "amazing things" is _____ meaning "to _____, _____; _____, do wonderful things; wondrous things, _____." Used primarily with God as the subject, denoting the fact that He does things that are beyond the bounds of _____ or _____." Our promised lands are places where God is willing to work untold wonders, but He desires two critical preparations from us: _____ and _____.

Homework:

Mark 9: 23-24 Jesus said to him, “If <sup>a</sup> you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” 24: Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, “Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!”

Get alone with God and write a letter identifying areas of where you struggle with unbelief. Where you struggle with trusting God at His word. Be honest with yourself, he already knows this is between you and God. Perhaps you struggle with believing you are forgiven, believing you are love, unbelief in God’s ability for you what ever your area of unbelief ask God to help you identify the source. Don’t worry about grammar the important part is your open your heart to God.

Repeat the five pledge of faith statements at least 3 times a day out loud.
